

SWEDISH CENTRE
FOR
NATURE INTERPRETATION

Using dialogue tools outdoors

Per Sonnvik

Katrin Jones Hammarlund

SCIENCE AND EDUCATION
FOR SUSTAINABLE
LIFE

SWEDISH CENTRE
FOR
NATURE INTERPRETATION

Why dialogue outdoors?

Having dialogue on site
Easier to get to know each other
Less power differences
You remember a meeting outdoors

Nature interpreters need dialogue competence

Value-based interpretation

SWEDISH CENTRE
FOR
NATURE INTERPRETATION

Toolbox at www.slu.se/cnv/dialogverktyg

- Methods
- Publications
- Documentation

SWEDISH CENTRE
FOR
NATURE INTERPRETATION

Preparations

Setting the stage

Guiding technique

Expectations

Activity map and friendly neighbour

SWEDISH CENTRE
FOR
NATURE INTERPRETATION

Moving

Silent walk

The object and I

Creating a room

The circle

Beehive

Landscape in 360 degrees

SWEDISH CENTRE
FOR
NATURE INTERPRETATION

Paying attention to the site

Observation walk

Base camp

The stories of the site

Meaning in a nutshell

SWEDISH CENTRE
FOR
NATURE INTERPRETATION

Using each other's knowledge

Open-ended questions

The wheel

Evaluation

The circle and roleplay

Horse shoe

The hand

SWEDISH CENTRE
FOR
NATURE INTERPRETATION

